Barbara Villiards Palmer was a mistress of Charles II.
Edward Palmer's will mentions John Palmer Esq., late grandfather, and of Mary his wife, sister of William Grivell, one of the Judges of the Common Pleas, and of Sir Giles Grivell, knight. He mentions his "uncle William Palmer, sometime one of the gentleman pensioners to King Henry VII" of Wales who had conquered England in 1488, before Columbus discovered America.

Martin Palmer (1726-1790) had 200 acres in Charlotte Co., VA in 1767 near his sons, Luke and Chillian.
 Isham Palmer left Lebanon, TN moving to Edward's Deport, in Hind's Co., Mississippi. John Cox died there in 1836. Isham's land became a famous Civil War battle scene with 22,000 confederate soldiers.
