CHART 1. Offspring of First Cousins, Lucy and James Cox

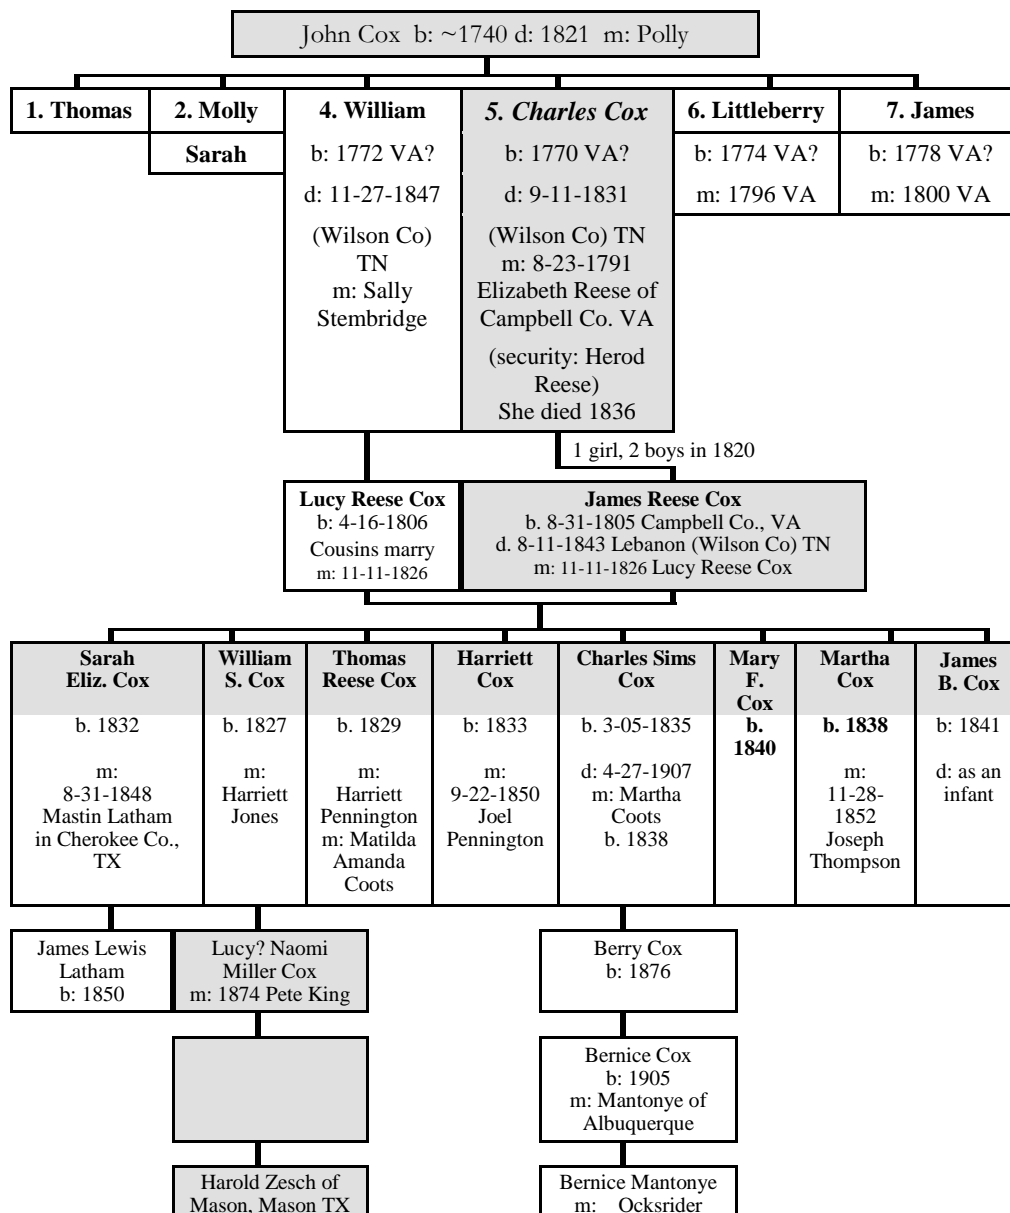

CHART 2. Offspring of William Cox & Cassandra Jackson

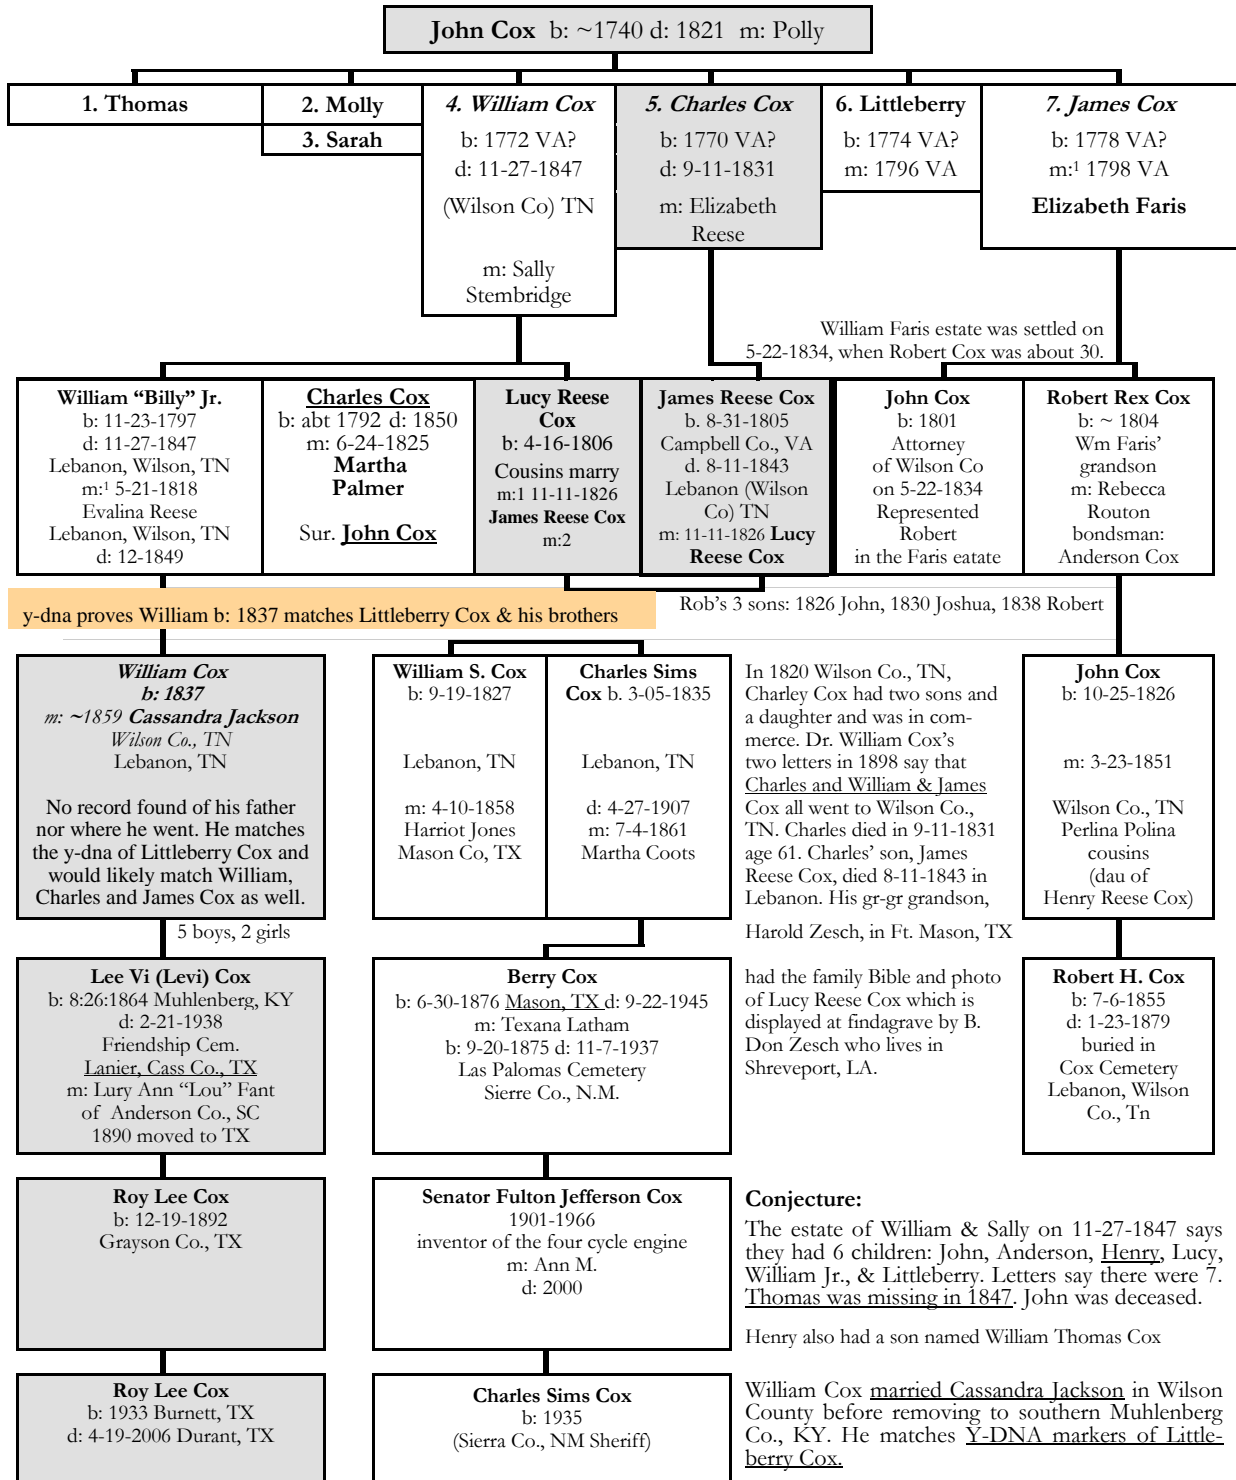

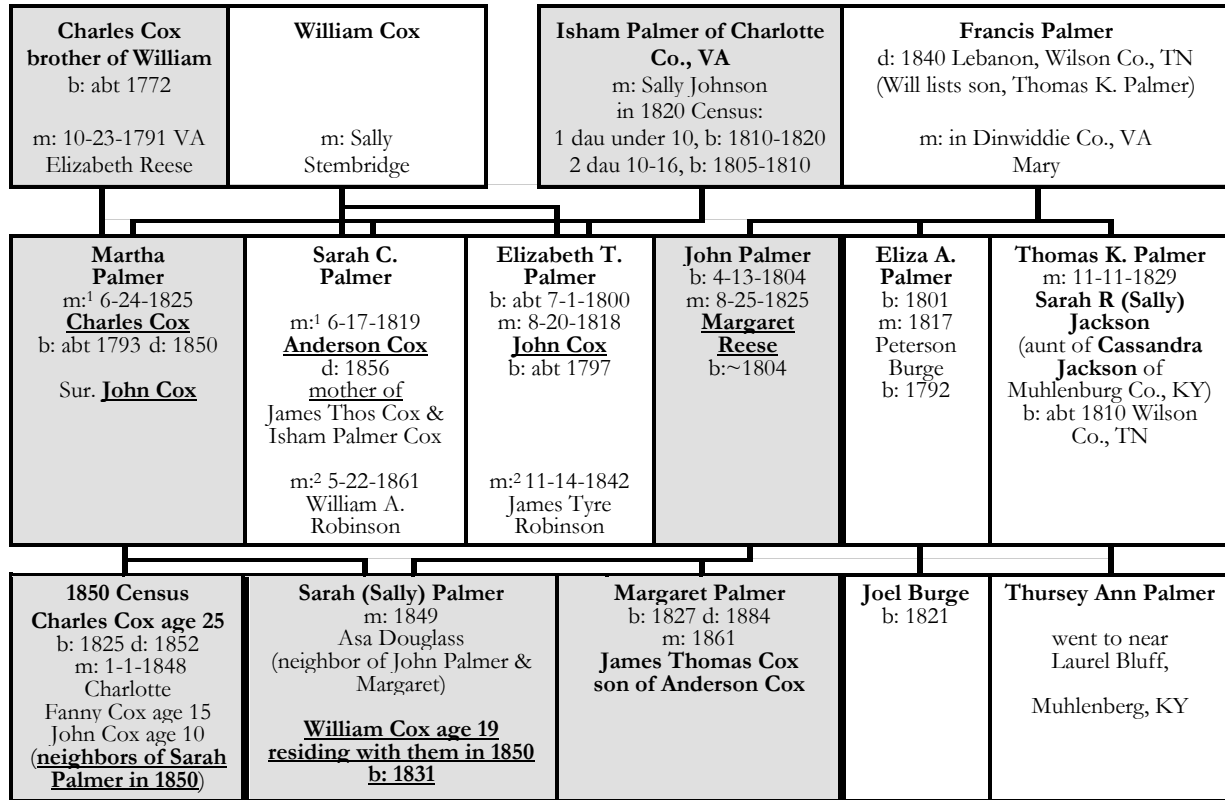

CHART 3. Assumption: Possible Offspring of Charles Cox & Elizabeth Reese

In the 1820 & 1830 Censuses, Charles, John & William Cox were neighbors.

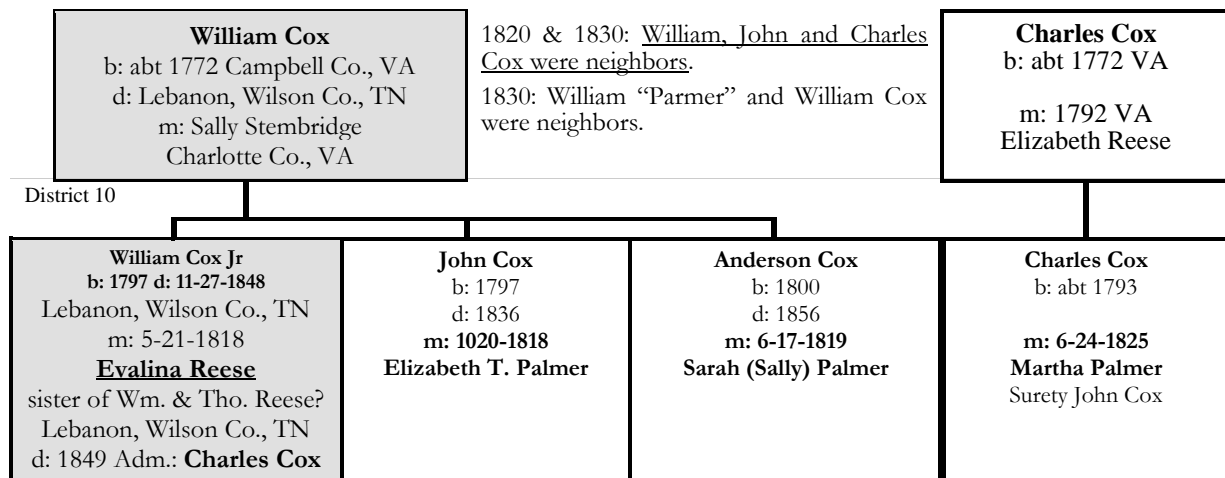

Elizabeth T. Palmer m:2 James Tyre Robinson in 1842, after John Cox died in Mississippi, and removed to Dallas Co., Princeton Twp., Arkansas by 1850: Jas. Robinsin age 35, Elizabeth 43, Martha Cox 27, John Cox 17, Jordan Cox 12, Joseph Robinson 6 (Source: R. H. Jackson, Rootsweb/Family Trees). Henry Reese Cox was previously the guardian of Elizabeth, Martha, John and Jordan to settle their estate.

William Cox died 11-27-1847, and Evalina died in December, 1849. Charles Cox was Administrator of her estate. Inventory lists Charles Cox, John Palmer, A. (Asa) Douglas and Joel Burg. Peterson Burg obtained the marriage bond for Mark Jackson, Cassandra's father (Source: William Cox of Muhlenburg County, Kentucky and His Descendants, by Dr. Jim E. Cox).

(Two sons removed to near Laurel Bluff, now Penrod, Muhlenberg, KY)

In 1820 1830, William, John and Charles Cox were neighbors

Their inventories in 1847 mention Charles Cox, John Palmer, A. Douglas, Joel Burge

Preponderance of the evidence connects William & Cassandra Cox with William & Evalina Cox or with Charles & Martha Palmer Cox:

- 1: Cassandra's aunt Sally Jackson lived in Lebanon, Wilson County, TN.
2. After 1847, the Jacksons and Burges removed from Lebanon to Muhlenberg Co., KY.
3. In 1860 William & Cassandra Cox removed from Lebanon to Muhlenberg Co., KY.
4. William Cox Jr. who married Cassandra is likely the son of William Cox Sr., the brother of Littleberry Cox.

5. The above older Charles Cox is likely a son of Charles Cox, the brother of Littleberry Cox, and this would be proven by the y-dna of his male descendants.

6. William & Evalina's inventories after their deaths include Charles Cox, Sarah Palmer Douglass and Elizabeth Palmer Burge, John Palmer and Margaret Reese.

7. The y-dna of William and Cassandra's descendants match the descendants of Littleberry Cox and, therefore, should match his nephew, William Cox, Jr.

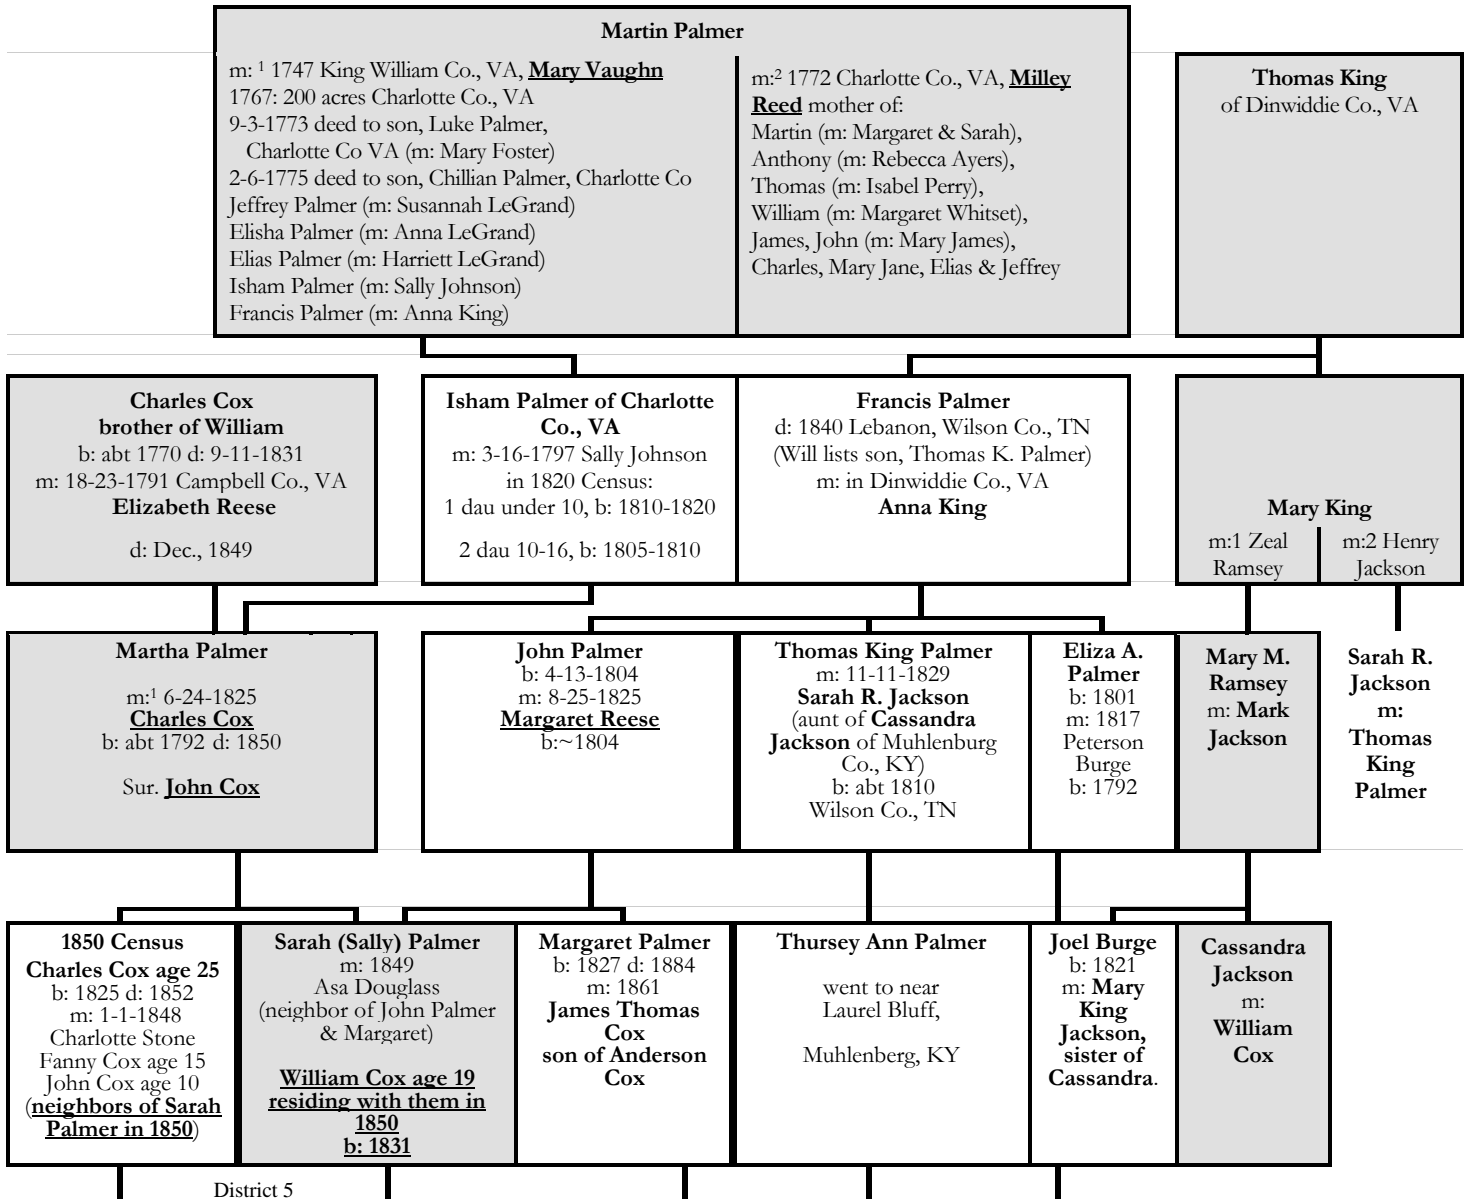

CHART 5. Possible Connections between Charles Cox & Cassandra Jackson

NOTE: The following chart is a theory on the offspring of Thomas King of Dinwiddie Co., VA, and offspring of Charles Cox, brother of Littleberry and William. In 1820, Charley Cox, merchant, had two sons and a daughter in Wilson Co., TN. More proof is needed to define the parents of William Cox who married Cassandra Jackson.

Charles' brother, William Cox, died 11-27-1847, and William's wife, Evalina, died in December, 1849. So a Charles Cox became Executor of Evalina's estate.

For the Cassandra Jackson side, Evalina's inventory lists Charles Cox, John Palmer, A. (Asa) Douglas and Joel Burge. Peterson Burge obtained the marriage bond for Mark Jackson, Cassandra's father (Source: William Cox of Muhlenburg County, Kentucky and His Descendants, by Dr. Jim E. Cox).

Charles Cox, Executor, could have been born shortly after 1791, after the marriage of Charles Cox and Elizabeth Reese. He could be the husband of Martha Palmer after 1825.

Isham Palmer b: 1764. Isham Palmer's two daughters married William & Sally Cox's sons, John and Anderson. Isham got 248 acres and sold John Cox part of it in 1826. Buried at the Palmer cemetery in the field ¼ mi. across from New Carroll-Oakland School: Robert Palmer b: 1807 & William Francis Palmer b: 1776, Sarah Palmer. John Palmer inherited the estate.

Isham Palmer removed to Edward's Deport, in Hind's Co., MS, and died there in about 1838. John Cox also went to MS and died there 10-27-1836. Isham's land became a famous Civil War battle scene with 22,000 confederate soldiers.
